

Name: Terence M. Brooks, Sr.

Years at Penn: 8

Years at FRES: 8

Job title (and brief description of job duties):

Project Manager Design & Construction

- Manage all assigned projects in a diligent, efficient, professional, and ethical manner.
- Deliver projects within established budgets and schedules, and are to be managed in accordance with all Department processes and procedures.
- Provide project information and support for the management of the overall University's capital program.
- Assist in the management of the overall capital program including plan approvals, procurement, design quality, schedule and budget management.

Have you taken any classes, received a degree, or attended any lectures at Penn? If so, please describe... I've attended various lectures conducted by the African American Resource Center throughout my years at Penn.

What is your favorite building on campus?

The Penn Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology.

Favorite place on campus to eat/drink? ...to shop? ...to sit quietly? ...to gather with friends/coworkers?

Penn Museum Stoner Courtyard and Widener Garden, and Kaskey Park.

Who is your favorite hero (fictional or real life)?

My father, Thomas M. Brooks, Sr.

What are your favorite things to do in your free time, outside of work?

Fishing.

What is the best lesson you ever learned?

The golden rule: Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.

What is your motto, words to live by, or best advice?

Life is short and we should respect every moment of it.