

PennAccess: Annenberg School for Communication

Entrance Information:

3620 Walnut Street . Philadelphia . PA . 19104

1. The main entry located on Walnut St. is a level entrance to the first floor. Inside the entrance an elevator is located to the far right at the northeast end of the hall. In addition, there is a ramp leading to the AV classrooms. There is a guard on duty at the front desk during open hours.
2. The south entrance from the courtyard off Locust Walk is ramped to the second floor. Two pairs of double doors open outward.
3. The main, Walnut Street entry may be reached from 36th Street by following a ramped pathway through the Annenberg Public Policy Center courtyard.

Elevator Information:

- There is an elevator near the main entrance of the building. This elevator accesses floors from the 1st floor through the 3rd floor. After entering the building at entry #1, make a right turn past the guard.
- There is an elevator on the northeast side of the building. This elevator accesses floors from the basement through the 3rd floor.
- There is an elevator on the 3rd floor. This elevator accesses floors from the 3rd floor through the 5th floor. From the main elevator, make a right turn, then a left and another right through the APPC doors. Continue along the hall about 50 feet. The elevator is on the right.

Accessible Restrooms:

- First floor - 1 full ADA men's and 1 full ADA women's. The first floor accessible restrooms are near the main entrance. There are also 4 unisex stalls, 2 in the NW corner and 2 in the NE corner.
- Second floor - off room 232: There are 2 men's stall rooms and 2 women's stall rooms.
- Third floor - 2 ADA men's stalls and 2 ADA women's stalls, on the NE side.
- Fourth floor - 4 ADA unisex stalls
- Fifth floor - 2 unisex stalls

Building Information:

- The third floor office 317 and classrooms 318 and 319 have stairs between them.
- The main entrance to the library is on the second floor of the building