1. Towne Building is accessible through the main entrance to Levine Hall off Chanceller Walk. This entrance does not access the basement of the Towne Building.
2. There is also access through the Levine Hall entrance off Walnut Street. Once inside you must pass through Levine Hall, in order to reach the Towne Building. This entrance does not access the basement of the Towne Building.
3. There is also access through the Skirkanich Hall entrance off 33rd Street. This entrance does not access the basement of the Towne Building.
4. The east entrance on 33rd St. is locked, but has a phone. This entrance is the only entrance providing access to the basement laboratories. The first floor is not accessible from this entrance.

- The entrances from Smith Walk have stairs.

Elevator Information:

- There is a freight elevator on the north side of the building. For access to the mezzanine or second floor the freight elevator can be used. Assistance is required to open and close the doors. Call the Office of Operational Services (room 195 Towne Building, 215.898.5598) to make arrangements to use the elevator. The freight elevator is also used by students and stops at all floors; except the basement.

Accessible Restrooms:

- First floor - unisex.
- Third floor - women's. The door is manual and heavy.
- There are accessible men's and women's restrooms on all floors of Levine Hall.

Building Information:

- Computer lab M62 (PC lab) can be reached by the freight elevator. Computer labs 144, M70 and M81 are open only to students taking Engineering classes.
- Auditorium 100 is tiered and has fixed tables and chairs. It is accessible from Entrance #1. There is seating for two people using wheelchairs on the lower level (by entering from the west corridor) and space for three or more on the upper level (by entering from the south corridor).
- Every entrance into the Engineering Complex is by Penn Card access only.
- The west Towne entrance is the dedicated visitor entrance with a guard on duty and open during the day. However, there is a step up to the entry, making this entrance inaccessible. If you need assistance, you must call the guard at 215-898-8115 or 215-898-7983.
